Welcome to the heart of the Adriatic

Welcome to the heart of the Adriatic, to a Croatian region that has been pulsating with life for centuries, boasting a rich cultural heritage, beautiful natural features and a moderate climate. This part of the Mediterranean was already appreciated by the ancient peoples who valued both its shores and islands, and its hinterland. The region of Zadar has been inhabited for millennia, since prehistoric and ancient times. The traces and the memory of the former inhabitants of this region, who found balance in their everyday lives by embracing a unique combination of the sea and the land, have been preserved to this day.

Geographically speaking, the region of Zadar is literally positioned at the heart of the Adriatic. It features a combination of beautiful Mediterranean natural landscapes and valuable historical monuments, each telling a story about a particular period in time.

It can be easily reached by air, land and sea. The County of Zadar has an international airport located 5 km from Zadar, a modern highway, bus lines, while the inhabited islands are connected by a network of traditional ferry, catamaran and high speed ferry lines.

Willkommen im Herzen der Adria

Herzlich willkommen im Herzen der Adria, in einem kroatischen Gebiet, das seit Jahrhunderten von Kultur, prachtvoller Natur und mildem Klima geprägt ist. Schon antike Volksstämme schätzten dieses Gebiet im Mittelmeerraum, sowohl die Küste und die Inseln, als auch das Küstenhinterland. Die Region um Zadar war schon in der Urgeschichte und in der Antike besiedelt. Die Spuren und Hinterlassenschaften der einstigen Einwohner dieses Gebiets sind noch heute erhalten. Hier, im Zusammenspiel von Land und Wasser, leben die Einheimischen schon immer ein ausgeglichenes Leben.

Die Region Zadar befindet sich geografisch gesehen im Herzen der Adria und verbindet die magische mediterrane Natur mit historischen Denkmälern, von denen jedes einzelne von einer eigenen Zeit zeugt.

Die Region ist über den Luft-, Straßen- und Schiffsverkehr leicht erreichbar. Die Gespanschaft Zadar verfügt auch über einen internationalen Flughafen, der fünf Kilometer von Zadar entfernt ist. Die Stadt ist mit einem modernen Autobahnnetz verbunden. Es gibt auch gute Busverbindungen. Die bewohnten Inseln sind auf Fähren, Katamaranen und Schnellbooten zu erreichen.

Zadar is an administrative center, a town that features numerous medieval monuments yet also a town that dances to a unique beat of modern life. It is surrounded by a fertile hinterland and overlooks more than a hundred and fifty karst islands of its archipelago. Zadar is the center of the county that extends from the island of Pag to the Kornati National Park.

The region's beautiful natural features and cultural and historical monuments have coexisted here for centuries in perfect harmony, reflecting a life in harmony with nature that endowed this relatively small region with so much diversity.

It is precisely for this reason that the County of Zadar is visited by numerous modern day nomads, people eager to experience a natural environment unspoiled by modern civilization, people seeking to find peace or their own identity, who come mainly during the summer season but also in other seasons of the year. It rarely happens that such a small region such as the region of Zadar has so much to offer, from the smallest cathedral in the world dating from the Middle Ages and the famous Sea Organ, to national parks and true miracles of nature, such as the Zrmanja River and the Velebit Mountain. Within only a hundred kilometer radius, the region offers so much diversity - a beautiful, crystal clear turquoise sea, snow-covered mountain slopes, fertile fields and meagre karst land, ancient towns and secluded island bays, and so much more.

A world in itself and the heart of the Adriatic, Zadar County is waiting for you to come and explore all it has to offer.

Zadar, das Verwaltungszentrum der Region, ist eine mittelalterliche Stadt, aber zugleich auch eine moderne. Sie ist umgeben von fruchtbaren Feldern des Küstenhinterlands. Der Archipel vor Zadar besteht aus 150 Inseln. Die Stadt ist das Zentrum der ganzen Gegend, die die Fläche von der Insel Pag bis zum Nationalpark Kornati einnimmt.

Die schöne Natur und kulturhistorische Denkmäler werden hier schon jahrhundertlang geschützt, denn die Einwohner leben seit Jahrhunderten im Einklang mit der Natur, die auf einer geografisch gesehen eher kleinen Fläche Vieles zu bieten hat.

Deshalb sind Zadar und seine Umgebung auch bei modernen Nomaden beliebt, bei Menschen, die im Sommer, aber auch in anderen Jahreszeiten, zur unberührten Natur zurückkehren, fernab von modernen Zivilisationen, weil sie nach Ruhe suchen oder zu sich selbst finden wollen... Wen man hierher kommt, hat man auf einer kleinen Fläche so viel wie nirgendwo anders auf der Welt zu sehen - von der kleinsten Kathedrale der Welt, die im Mittelalter errichtet wurde, über die berühmte Meeresorgel, bis hin zu Nationalparks und Wundern der Natur, wie dem Fluss Zrmanja und dem Gebirge Velebit. Auf einer Strecke von einhundert Kilometern sieht man wunderschönes türkisblaues Meer, schneebedeckte Hügel, fruchtbare Felder und Karstlandschaften, eine antike Stadt und versteckte Inselbuchten...

Das ist die ganze Welt in klein, im Herzen der Adria. Sie wartet nur darauf, von Ihnen erkundet zu werden.
